

ERIE HUNT AND SADDLE CLUB

PEG HULL MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

In the spirit of the bylaws "to educate the community in all aspects of horsemanship, to promote the welfare of horses", Erie Hunt and Saddle Club is offering a scholarship utilizing a portion of the funds donated in memoriam of Peg Hull.

Annually EHSC will distribute up to $300 to be used for equine education. Applications can be for clinics, camps, courses, or any educational aspect which will increase the applicant's skill as an equestrian.

Completed applications must be received no later than June 15 of each year to the email address or street address on the bottom of this page. An independent committee will review the applications and notify the recipient(s). It will be the committee's discretion how to allocate the scholarship monies.
